Only a few shown, but there were some good ones that displayed the correct harsh coats and dew claws on all four feet that the standard calls for. I was pleased with the substance and good movement the dogs had.

Very nice quality with some outstanding specimens. There are some problems in the shape, colour of eyes and heads, distance from tip of nose to stop longer than stop to occiput. Body proportions can improve also. Best of Breed Female is of outstanding quality, excellent head carriage with keen, intelligent expression, excellent body proportions and movement. The Best Puppy and Reserve Best of Breed also of great quality. Congratulations to the breeders.

Mr Yoshio Mori

On average, the quality should be improved in the head expression. My Best of Breed is very beautiful with a full coat, excellent bone and muscle and very good presentation. Other dogs should have breed characteristic (eye, forehead, muzzle too snipey). Substance, (bone & muscle) should be better on average. Generally the character and temperament was very good.

I was delighted with the quality and soundness of the Japanese Spitz that I judged. Pigment and eye colour was excellent, and coats and grooming top class. All the mouth were correct, and head shapes were very close to the standard. Bodies were compact, lovely spring of rib and the handling was most professional. A very pleasing group of dogs to judge. Thank you for a lovely entry.

What a wonderful entry of top quality Keeshonds. The majority of the dogs had the short compact bodies called for in the standard, and the foxy heads. Pigment was all good as were mouths. The coats were full and almost all the colours were correct, one or two undercoats were a little on the "tawny" side instead of grey or cream. I loved my winners who had the lovely eye "spectacle", correct shoulder markings and coarse coat colour. Movement was sound and bone excellent.

A small number present, but some excellent Lhasa's. I found most of the dogs to have good heads of correct proportions and nice dark eyes. The bodies were generally good too, nicely ribbed up and correct length. Good shoulder lay back and well angulated hindquarters. My winners had tremendous coats, excellent head and tail carriage and moved soundly. The presentation was excellent and the dogs moved soundly, briskly and happily.
