LIFEWISE

'm pleased to welcome you to the 2023 Melbourne Royal Show. This year marks 175 years since the Show first began, with a group of farmers organising a way to showcase the very best of Victorian agriculture.

Things looked a little different back then - and there's no doubt the Show has grown, evolved and blossomed in that time. But one thing has endured: the Melbourne

Royal Show is an institution. It's one of Victoria's most iconic and treasured community events - celebrating agriculture and strengthening our sense of community, while drawing in thousands from across our state and beyond every year.

Where every day is not your everyday

The Melbourne Royal Show features exciting new attractions, with more farm experiences and animals, greater value and bigger smiles!

Escape the everyday at the 2023 Melbourne Royal Show!

he Melbourne Royal Show is an iconic Victorian major event that brings much joy and happiness to the Victorian community. Every day at the 2023 Melbourne Royal Show, to be held from September 21 to October 1, there's up to 11 hours of sheer fun, discovery and entertainment to enjoy with family and friends.

With massive new attractions, more farm experiences and animals, greater value and bigger smiles, every day and every night is packed full of fun, thrills and excitement

Whether you are looking to get up close and personal with the animals, revel in learning and experiencing life on the farm, keen to take in the blue-ribbon competitions, indulge in delicious Show food or scream in joy on one of the many exciting rides, the Melbourne Royal Show offers an unparalleled blend of entertainment, education and excitement for people of all ages.

Governor-General to open the 2023 Melbourne Royal Show

The Governor-General, His Excellency David Hurley, will officially open the 2023 Melbourne Roval Show, with a special fly-over by Air Force Roulette and No. 100 Squadron aircraft in celebration of 175 years of Melbourne Roval. September 21, 11.30am, on the Horses in Action Arena

Welcome Message from the Premier of Victoria

The Show's success and longevity are a testament to its team, particularly its dedicated volunteers.

On behalf of the Victorian Government, and all Victorians: thank you to everyone who works so hard to make this event a success year after year.

Daniel Andrews Premier of Victoria

From the Melbourne Royal President

a much-loved major Victorian event that is a unique and valuable platform to promote and celebrate excellence in agriculture.

This year we celebrate 175 years since the Melbourne Royal Show, as it is known today, was born from a group of farmers who conducted ploughing matches to improve agriculture.

There is nothing like the thrill and excitement of competing at the Melbourne Royal Show.

"It's the thousands of competitors and animals that remain the star attraction of the Show."

From livestock to Horses in Action. art. craft and cookery to Championship Dogs and woodchop, it's the thousands of competitors and animals that remain the star attraction of the Show as they all compete for a coveted Melbourne Royal blue-ribbon.

We wish all our talented competitors the very best of luck in their pursuits during the 11 days of the Show.

The iconic Melbourne Royal Show is about unique experiences and moments that make people smile and bring much joy and happiness, whether you are six. 16 or 60.

The quality and variety of experiences at this year's Melbourne Royal Show has been carefully curated to maximise the appeal to visitors of all ages, and offer even greater value with loads more free attractions, farm animals and entertainment.

This year you can enjoy great family fun and farm experiences by day and a feast of food and spectacular entertainment by night.

We are delighted to have a number of our community partners and government agencies involved in this year's Show, including the VICSES. Fire Rescue Victoria. Victoria Police, the Transport Accident Commission and Agriculture Victoria.

Make sure you visit them to find out more about what they do and how they help the community.

The success and longevity of Melbourne Roval Show is due to the committed and passionate people who have contributed in the past and today, including all our partners and sponsors, committees, officials members, staff and volunteers.

We are most grateful for their involvement and support and trust they have an enjoyable and memorable experience being involved in the 2023 Melbourne Royal Show.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Melbourne Royal Show at Melbourne Showgrounds from Thursday, September 21, to Sunday, October 1.

Melbourne Royal Show is many things to many Victorians, and it's where smiles and happy memories have been in abundance since 1848. We look forward to many more in 2023.

Something for every tastebud to enjoy

Whether you're gathering for a catch-up with friends or grabbing a bite before getting on the next ride, there are lots of food options to settle in with or to enjoy on the go!

Sushi Hub

Graze and Eat Street Sushi Hub is all about serving the freshest, tastiest and best-quality Japanese-inspired food from ingredients delivered daily. From crowd favourites such as salmon and tuna maki rolls to modern classics such as sushi sandwiches and tamagovaki on a stick. there is something for everyone.

Eat Street

Treat your tastebuds with a culinary trip around the world. Choose from the multitude of international cuisines in the Eat Street dining precinct.

Whether you have a hunger for Asian. Mediterranean or American fare, or you're after a sweet treat to cap off a meal, Eat Street will be sure to keep you going all day and night at the Show.

Grab a $4 cheese toastie from the Melt shop

Smokehouse and Barbecue

Next to Rural Pavilion A beefed-up smokehouse and barbecue for that chill, country vibe. You can settle in here or catch the mighty Woodchop competition, watch the working dogs or enjoy a pony ride.

Madame Flavour handcrafts finest ingredients. Available for purchase at Wonder Pies food and beverage vendors

St Remio Coffee

Entertainment Precinct from 9.30am-9pm Make sure you stop by and grab yourself a delicious, sustainable St Remio coffee. Best of all, with each cup you enjoy, you are allowing St Remio to fund projects to support female coffee growing communities.

Graze

Graze offers attendees an upmarket food experience in between taking in the sights of the Melbourne Royal Show, right in the heart of the Entertainment Precinct.

There's plenty of seating for you and the family to enjoy, while feasting on Melbourne's popular food outlets.

Wonderbao will serve up some bao love with their soft and fluffy Asian-style baos with delicious barbecue pork and chicken stuffings.

On hand will be Wonder Pies by chef Raymond Capaldi who has taken the humble Aussie pie to the next level with an array of savoury fillings sourced from Melbourne's finest local producers.

Fried chicken is always a firm family Show favourite, and Melbourne's Mr. Miyagi serves the crispiest chicken of them all.

They will join their sister brand Ebby in dishing up some beefed-up burgers.

After a quick or healthy snack like a sushi tuna roll or salad? Sushi Hub will be serving up some Japanese food favourites.

Enjoy one of That Arancini Guy's delicious arancini balls or stop at the Furphy Bar for a relaxing drink before taking in all of the Show's sights in the evening as the entertainment takes the stage.

KIIS Neon Alley

Get ready to experience a burst of colours and flavours within the new KIIS Neon Alley. This is the After-Dark selfie spot!

Gather everyone and head over to KIIS Neon Alley where the evening mood is lit up with vibrant neon colours, lights and your smiles.

Test your tastebuds on the electric neon dagwood dog, neon gourmet hot dog, and gummy bear loaded fries - an exciting and colourful addition to the food line-up at the Melbourne Royal Show.

Customised airstream trailers have been transformed into the ultimate specialty-food outlets.

Schnitzels, freak shakes, panko-crumbed, golden-fried dagwood dogs and the best gelato in Melbourne.

Need a vegetarian option? KIIS Neon Alley has you covered with gluten-free menu items and halal-halloumi burgers second to none.

Go ahead, stay later and linger longer in KIIS Neon Alley.

Next to Rural Pavilion Talk about flavour! Treat your

Hoy Pinoy

taste buds to Hoy Pinoy's mouth-watering barbecued, smoked and roasted meats cooked with traditional Filipino flavours and methods

Madame Flavour

Proudly Australian, and blends teas from a collection of the world's Café and other selected

Country Women's Association

A day at the Show is not complete without a visit to the Country Women's Association Café – a favourite stop at the Show for generations.

CWA volunteers have staffed the Café for more than 70 years, offering full, cooked breakfasts, hearty lunches and. of course, their famous scones with jam and cream.

hey called themselves the societies that have ensured Moonee Ponds Farmers' Society, and their hope was that a competitive spirit would encourage participants to improve their skills for the betterment of all local agriculture. Some 175 years later, this organisation is now called Melbourne Royal, but the use of competitions to pursue excellence in agriculture continues to inform our mission.

Over the past 175 years, Melbourne Royal has been involved in a variety of different agricultural pursuits. Starting with the ploughing matches, we soon introduced competitions judging agricultural animals, implements, and produce. From 1854, an annual exhibition was held to consolidate this judging and showcase the best of Victorian agriculture, ultimately becoming what we know today as the Melbourne Royal Show. There have also been competitions outside of Show time, from the Farm Management and Improvement Competitions to the suite of Food and Beverage Awards that continue to this day.

Beyond competitions, Melbourne Royal has supported and promoted Victorian agriculture. We've aided in the creation and administration of many key bodies and breed

The Buchanan Family From the birth of the National Agricultural Society of Victoria to celebrating its 150th anniversary. the Buchanan family has been there every step of the way over nearly 150 years With Melbourne Royal across three generations, the Buchanan family was a part of the founding members of the National Agricultural Society of Victoria. The family's passion and dedication to the community and committees led to J. Keith Buchanan being declared a member of the Order of Australia in 1979.

The Chirnside Family A pastoral empire establishes a long legacy.

The Chirnside family's ties to Melbourne Royal were established early, as their land was used for the first Intercolonial Champion Ploughing Match organised by the Society in 1882. Several generations of the family have since been involved with Melbourne Roval at the highest levels, including G.T. Chirnside (Trustee 1918–1940), Peter Ronald CMG (President 1973-1976), and Jason Ronald OAM (Director 2009-current).

Vicky Lawrie An icon of the Garryowen Equestrienne Turnout Vicky Lawrie is the most prolific winner of the Garryowen Perpetual Trophy, the most coveted show horse title for female riders in Australia. She has won the competition an incredible six times, including on the competition's 50th anniversary in 1984. In 2009, she was the first person to be inducted into the Garryowen Hall of Fame in recognition of her exceptional achievement.
